

HUGHES KEPT MUTE ALL DAY BY DOCTOR

Only Broke Out Once, in a Mysterious Conference With Fairbanks.

RESTED FOR OHIO TO-DAY

Indiana Leaders, Pleased With Crowds, Say Candidate Will Win by 30,000.

INDIANAPOLIS, Sept. 24.—The Hon. Charles E. Hughes and the Hon. Charles Warren Fairbanks side by side paced the parklike lawn of Mr. Fairbanks' home on North Pennsylvania street this afternoon, passed up and down and down and up, and scores of folk that went there for a dish of tea and to make their bow to the national candidates would have given a dime or two to know what their talk was about.

Whatever it was it looked interesting, for Fairbanks, of a panatista cut in statement and quite prodigiously tall, stooped the shoulder nearest Hughes and inclined his head at an awkward angle, the better to catch his companion's words, and sometimes the good right arm of Candidate Hughes cut the air in a phatic gesture, something or somebody was catching it—that was certain.

Some who went to the tea party must have wondered what Mr. Hughes, for he kept his lips closed, merely nodding occasionally. To look at him one would have imagined he was bored or that he disliked his callers exceedingly or that he was despondent.

The fact is, his physician, Dr. Alexander, had delivered explicit orders that he must not use his voice at all—that he must have absolute rest, or, the doctor, wouldn't be drawn, and among the consequences. So Mr. Hughes wasn't even allowed to mutter or to mumble. Of course with Mr. Fairbanks he broke the rule, but he observed it with others and the result is that to-night he is pretty well rested, mind, body and voice, and will be able to start speaking in Ohio to-morrow with plenty of vigor.

Democrats at Tea.

The reception and tea at the Fairbanks home in honor of Mr. and Mrs. Hughes interested Indianapolis. Partisan lines were not drawn, and among the callers were a number of prominent Democrats. Among the Republican guests were former Attorney General William Henry Harrison Miller, President Harrison's closest friend perhaps, and Harry S. New, candidate for the Senate.

After a refreshing sleep last night Mr. Hughes went for a walk in the sunshine, having a look at Pennsylvania street and a residence district which is one of the most beautiful in the country. Later he accompanied Mrs. Fairbanks to the Rev. Dr. Joshua Stansfield delivered the sermon. Mr. and Mrs. Hughes spent the rest of the day at the Fairbanks home, going to their private car shortly after dinner.

The deliberate judgment of Indiana's biggest Republican leaders is that Hughes won many thousands of votes for the party in the three days tour of the State; that the effectiveness of the campaigning methods is beyond criticism; that the people obviously warm to him and that he will carry the State by from 30,000 to 50,000.

A lot of smaller leaders are talking wildly about getting Indiana by any where from 50,000 to 100,000. The big fellows know better. Mr. Harry New, Will H. Hays, the State chairman, James P. Goodrich and A. T. Hert, the Western campaign manager, who is a Hoosier and used to be warden of the Jeffersonville reformatory. The way they feel about it is that the margin will be about 30,000, and they wouldn't really be disappointed if it fell to 25,000.

Hert Sees Victory.

Mr. Hert, who has put the big punch in the Western campaign and who accompanied Hughes on the tour of Illinois, Wisconsin and Indiana—a tour, it might as well be admitted, that was undertaken with some misgivings because its success or failure might be the turning point in the whole campaign—kave today to THE SUN his estimate and observation of the middle West tour and what its effect will be.

"At the close of a week of travel through Illinois, Wisconsin and Indiana with the Republican Presidential nominee I do not hesitate to predict that Mr. Hughes will carry every one of these States by large majorities," said Hert. "Starting last Tuesday at Peoria, where he addressed the Illinois Republican State convention, Mr. Hughes has spoken in thirty-four cities and towns of the middle West to no less than 300,000 people, while thousands were unable to get within sound of his voice.

"Mr. Hughes's clear and forceful declaration of the policies in which he believes and to which the Republican party is committed, and his frank assertion of the course he intends to follow when he enters the White House never failed to enthuse and win the plaudits of his hearers. The people wanted to know what he proposed to do. He told them, and their manifestations of approval were unmistakable.

"The past three days have been spent in Indiana, which prior to our visit was told was 'doubtful territory.' I wish to assert after my recent observations that Indiana is not doubtful. It will go for Hughes and Fairbanks by an overwhelming majority in November."

Chairman Hays, a Bull Moose leader, sided with the tour this way: "Governor Hughes's trip in northern Indiana became a triumphal procession. It can mean but one thing, Indiana voters, regardless of party, trust him and are with him in his fight. He was visualized for half a million people in Indianapolis and not less than 200,000 heard his voice. The 200,000 were convinced and the half million were pleased."

Mr. Hughes will make several speeches at Dayton, Ohio, to-day in connection with a short Ohio tour. He is scheduled to arrive in Dayton at 7:30 A. M. At 10 A. M. he will visit the Soldiers Home and make a very brief talk. At 11:30 he speaks before the National League of Republican Clubs. At 1:30 he will go to the Fair Grounds in his honor. His principal address will be made at 7:30 P. M. He will spend the night in Dayton.

CITY HAS LEBAUDY'S $152,156.

"Emperor of the Sahara," Suing in France, Pears to Accept It.

ALBANY, Sept. 24.—Eugene Lamb Richards, Superintendent of Banks, has brought an end to the litigation between the defunct Carnegie Trust Company of New York City and Jacques Lebaudy, sometimes known as "the Emperor of the Sahara," by depositing with the Chamberlain of New York City a sum of $152,156. The courts have held that Lebaudy is entitled to the money, but he has refused to accept it for fear it might have a prejudicial effect upon an action he has instituted in France to recover his estate. Mr. Richards, desiring to be rid of responsibility, turned the money over to the City Chamberlain.

CITIZENS UNION TO PUT EIGHT QUERIES

Legislative Candidates Failing to Approve Them Will Be Fought at Polls.

The Citizens Union, which has been active in previous campaigns, will take part again in the campaign this year. John Colt, secretary of the union, said yesterday a larger committee than usual would conduct the investigation into the qualifications of candidates for judicial, county and legislative offices and would actively work for the candidates it favored where the result appeared to be in doubt.

Candidates for the Legislature will be asked to give their views on these eight important subjects of legislation:

A home rule constitutional amendment giving cities control of their purely local affairs.

A constitutional amendment extending the veto power of the Mayor of New York to special bills relating to counties within the city.

A constitutional amendment providing for a "short ballot" for State and county officers.

The abolition of useless county offices within New York City or their consolidation with the proper city departments.

The rejection of measures granting special favors to private individuals, dismissed public employees or the holders of illegal claims.

Revision of the primary system to permit the designation of organization candidates by party committees.

Appointment of election officers from eligible lists prepared after examination of candidates by the Civil Service Commission.

The transfer of the appointment of Commissioners of Election in New York City from the Board of Aldermen to the Mayor.

PUBLIC TO BE ASKED FOR $750,000,000

Churches, Colleges, Y. M. C. A.'s and Hospitals Soon to Begin Campaigns.

Churches, colleges, philanthropic organizations and hospitals will begin campaigns all over the United States for funds, the total of which will run close to $750,000,000.

America's benevolences run into huge figures every year, but never before, it is stated, has the United States been asked to give so much money when the many war relief beneficiaries are excluded. New York, of course, will be the centre of most of these campaigns.

Churches and philanthropic workers think it is the right time to ask, the America is brimming with prosperity and purse strings should be easily relaxed.

The International Y. M. C. A. will ask $4,500,000, and city and country Y. M. C. A. branches all over the United States will call for $1,500,000 for buildings within the year.

The Episcopal, Presbyterian and Methodist and other churches want to raise $60,000,000, and several superannuated preachers, several denominations have had such plans under way, but this year they have enlarged the scope of their ambitions.

Foreign missionary societies of the United States, which in the past have set their mark at $10,000,000, are out this year for $20,000,000. The reason is that English churches have given their American brethren to take over a part of their activities, because of the strain abroad caused by the war.

Lutherans are raising $3,000,000 and the German Reformed Church $1,000,000 because they intend to celebrate the Luther Reformation anniversary in 1917.

The Congregationalists are raising $2,500,000 for a celebration of the anniversary of the landing of the Pilgrims.

Roman Catholic educational projects call for $4,500,000, and large foreign missionary projects as well. France, the mainstay in years past, is unable to do much now in this field.

Protestant, Catholic and Jewish organizations of New York alone have plans which will necessitate raising millions by public subscription.

America will spend $25,000,000 for new churches and parish houses during the year, it is believed, this item being about the only one which has decreased from last year's figure.

ABDUCTION OF WIFE CHARGED.

P. L. Bernstein Gets Warrant for Theatrical Booking Agent.

As a result of the disappearance on Wednesday of his wife, known on the stage as May Ward, Freeman L. Bernstein, owner of several theatres of New York, avenue, Leola, has sworn out a warrant for abduction against a well known theatrical booking agent of this city.

According to Mr. Bernstein, he saw his wife talking with the man he suspects on Wednesday morning. Later he and his wife motored to the 125th street station of the New York Central, intending to go to Saranac Lake for a few weeks. Bernstein left his wife for half an hour to transact some business in the neighborhood, and when he returned she had gone.

After searching for some time he reported the affair to Prosecutor Huchli. Nothing concerning her whereabouts is known, but Bernstein is convinced the man for whom he has caused a warrant to be issued knows all about her disappearance.

PRESIDENT IN MOVIE TO AID HIS CAMPAIGN

Entire Democratic Administration in Action for Benefit of New York Film Fans.

ORATORS TO HELP OUT

New Text Book Attacking Whitman Regime Work of Clever Jokesmith.

The Wilson managers plan a motion picture campaign for the capture of New York City votes. Vance C. McCormick, announcing it yesterday, expressed the opinion it would prove effective, reaching thousands of voters who could not be persuaded in any other way to take an interest in the election.

The motion pictures will show the Wilson Administration actually at work in Washington, said Mr. McCormick. The public will have an opportunity to see Joseph Daniels and the rest of them doing the things that have made them famous, all specially posed for the Wilson film campaign. It will be something new.

Empty stores wherever available will be taken over for these exhibits; orators of national reputation will be seen in speaking parts along with the pictures. There will be ample supplies of "literature."

Mr. McCormick spoke of the plan as one for a "cyclonic campaign," adding that his committee intended to "work in a spirit of earnest cooperation with the local organization," meaning Tammany, for the election of Wilson, Seabury and McCombs.

McCormick on Indiana.

So occupied was Chairman McCormick with these plans to take New York by storm for Wilson that he was unable to join his usual week end visit to his home in Pennsylvania and passed Sunday in national headquarters. To a question as to what he thought of the crowds and enthusiasm that greeted Mr. Hughes in Indiana, the Democratic National chairman said crowds and enthusiasm were uncertain political barometers. He did not doubt the Republicans had been at work to "whoopee it up" for Hughes and Fairbanks in Indiana, which is the Vice-Presidential candidate's home State.

"Evidences are multiplying that the justice and strength of Woodrow Wilson's cause, before the people was not less than 200,000 heard his voice. The 200,000 were convinced and the half million were pleased."

John C. Adams has accepted the chairmanship of the Seabury campaign committee for the election of a Democratic Governor in this State. The vice-chairmen include Herman A. Metz, Amos Pinchot and Dr. Commissioner Robert Adams. William A. Barber will be chairman of a finance committee.

Activity for McCombs.

The William P. McCombs committee in a statement describing his popularity with young Democrats referred yesterday to the Democratic candidate for United States Senator as "the man who has brought about the nomination and managed the election of a President."

A young man's McCombs league is "Whitman's Wanton Waste" is the name on the cover of a campaign text book issued by the Democratic State Committee. Some Democrats who looked through the book said the title was pleasant, but almost too serious for a joke book.

The Democratic text book is in fact a joke book, its author, Albert E. Hoyt, clerk of the committee, being an Albany newspaper man with a sense of humor, which his friends believe should in time bring both fame and fortune to him. It was no trouble to Mr. Hoyt to find a subject for Democratic attack. A simple method followed in the text book was to ascribe to the Whitman administration the vices of its Democratic predecessors in Albany and add the needed touch of indignant comment. "The Story of a State's Disgrace," "Nineteen Hundred New Jobs," "Tax Eating Junkies" and "Billions for Political Pork" are samples from the table of contents.

SOCIALISTS RATIFY THEIR NOMINATIONS

National and State Candidates Make Car Strike a Campaign Issue.

New York Socialists met yesterday in Madison Square Garden, ratified the nominations of their national and State candidates, and made it clear the car strike is to be the issue of their campaign.

Frank A. Silverman, candidate for President of the Board of Aldermen, mentioned the strike in his first words. "We will discourage scabbery in every way we can," he said, "and we will not patronize the means of transportation so long as the strike lasts."

Joseph D. Cannon, candidate for United States Senator, urged public ownership as a preventive of such conflicts. Morris Hillquit, candidate for Representative in Congress from the Twentieth district, said the strike has served to make the workers of New York "class conscious."

"If there is to be a general strike, which we hope will not be necessary, we think it should be complete and effective. But it would be less effective for the 700,000 or 800,000 workers to take over the city government by their votes, elect their own Mayor, their own Aldermen, and take over the street railways as public property, eliminating the Sheds and Hedleys. That holds good for the entire country as well as for New York," he argued.

When W. R. Fitzgerald, Matthew Higgins, P. J. O'Brien and other car strike leaders entered the hall they were cheered.

Allan L. Benson, candidate for President, made an address, which included an attack on the Hay-Chamberlain army reorganization bill, into which a draft provision has been smuggled, he asserted. Benson was greeted with a demonstration which lasted more than fifteen minutes. Wall Street, he asserted, does not care particularly whether Wilson or Hughes wins, both being its men.

Representative Meyer London, George R. Kirkpatrick, candidate for Vice-President, and Algernon Lee, candidate for Governor, also spoke.

Holy Name Societies March.

Societies of the Holy Name in Brooklyn, 30,000 strong, paraded the streets of New York yesterday. The silent procession was the annual protest against the profanation of the name of the Deity.

NOMINEES OF G. O. P. TO ACCEPT TO-NIGHT

Notification Ceremonies at Republican Club—Dewey and Wadsworth Orators.

BUSY WEEK FOR HUGHES

After Ohio Tour He Will Speak Up-State on His Way to Saratoga Conference.

Gov. Whitman will be the figure of chief interest at the notification ceremonies in the Republican Club, West Fortieth street, to-night; after Whitman, William M. Calder, the candidate for United States Senator, and Whitman's associates on the Republican State ticket.

It is expected the assembly room of the club will be filled with men prominent in Republican affairs in this city and in the State at large. The honor of notifying Gov. Whitman has been awarded to Chauncey M. Depew, a veteran of Republican politics. Mr. Calder will be informed officially of his nomination by Senator Wadsworth.

Charles E. Hughes being absent from the State, he will be represented by his campaign manager, William R. Willcox, chairman of the Republican National Committee. Mr. Willcox was out of town yesterday, passing the day with friends in Southampton, but he will return to the city for the notification ceremony and to map out Mr. Hughes's third campaign tour.

Hughes to Be at Saratoga.

Mr. Hughes will be in New York this week, making speeches for two days in a spirit of earnest cooperation with the unofficial State convention which the Republicans will hold in Saratoga on Thursday. The Presidential candidate is due to return to this city on Sunday next.

Republican national headquarters is in receipt of hundreds of congratulatory messages from the central States, referring to the tremendous impression which Hughes's speeches have made on the voters in that part of the country. One of the messages from W. H. Hays, Republican State chairman in Indiana, is typical in its description of the enthusiasm which Mr. Hughes aroused wherever he spoke.

"Mr. Hughes's trip in northern Indiana became a triumphal procession. It can mean but one thing—Indiana voters, regardless of party, trust him and are with him in his fight, ready to put into the struggle all the energy and labor necessary to conclude a successful campaign."

Mr. Hughes was visualized for half a million people in Indiana, which is the Vice-Presidential candidate's home State. "Evidences are multiplying that the justice and strength of Woodrow Wilson's cause, before the people was not less than 200,000 heard his voice. The 200,000 were convinced and the half million were pleased."

"We hope and expect to have him for two days in the southern half of the State late in October. That territory he did not touch. With that visit Indiana will register a Republican majority in November that will forever set at rest the aspiration that we are a doubtful State. Indiana is for Hughes."

Store Room Campaign Grows.

The success attending the vacant store room campaign opened by the Hughes Alliance at Broadway and Vesey streets has been so great that it has been decided to open similar campaign centres in other boroughs and to increase the number in Manhattan. Robert Sholes has given the use of a building at 1403 Broadway for the purpose.

It has been found that the thousands of voters who enrolled themselves in the Hughes Alliance at the Broadway and Vesey street store room included not only a great number of former Progressives but also hundreds of Democrats. It is not doubted that inspection of the enrollments at the other booths will disclose a similar enrollment of Democrats.

The Hughes Alliance yesterday announced the demand on it for lithographs of Hughes and copies of his speeches had been such as to tax its ability to supply. To meet the demand it is printing hundreds of thousands of pamphlets giving striking utterances from Mr. Hughes's speeches bearing on the campaign.

The President will receive a delegation of Boy Scouts Thursday and a delegation of young Democrats from New York on Saturday.

J. H. BELL ABANDONS WILSON.

Ex-Mayor of Yonkers Chosen Official of Hughes Alliance.

YONKERS, N. Y., Sept. 24.—It was learned today that J. Harvey Bell, Democrat, former Mayor of Yonkers and formerly President of the Yonkers Police Board, has been chosen a vice-president of the Hughes Alliance of Westchester county. Mr. Bell supported President Wilson four years ago.

The former Mayor and his brother, J. Christie Bell, are the principal members of the Hughes Alliance of New York. It is said to hold securities valued at $100,000.

The Administration's advocacy of a high tax on incomes is said to have been the determining factor in Mr. Bell's decision to leave the party to which he has given a lifelong allegiance.

Bermuda Ravaged by Storm.

HAMILTON, Bermuda, Sept. 24.—Bermuda was swept by a severe storm yesterday afternoon, very general damage being caused throughout the colony. Many buildings were badly damaged. Trees were uprooted and electric light and telephone communication was interrupted.

YOUTH'S BODY FOUND BY EARLY CHURCHGOER AND SIX ARRESTS ARE MADE.

Joseph McCarthy, 15, of 75 Third avenue, Long Island City, was found stabbed through the heart yesterday in East avenue, near Sixth street. Joseph Smith, 144 Twelfth street, Long Island City, discovered the body as he was on his way to church early in the morning.

Capt. Graham of the Queens detective bureau learned that McCarthy was one of a number of young men who had attended a party at the home of George McNeill, 75 Eighth street. At the house the detectives learned the names of those who attended.

Six young men who attended the party were arrested last night. James Heffernan, 35, of 76 Eighth street, one of the number, was booked "on suspicion of homicide," and the others were held as material witnesses. All denied any knowledge of the manner in which McCarthy came to his death. Heffernan, the police say, is one of two men who were convicted of attacking Mrs. Clara Elliott in Cassidy's clubhouse in Long Island City. He was released from prison when his conviction was set aside.

McCarthy was unmarried and had been employed at the National Sugar Refinery. The scene of the murder is just a block from Jackson avenue, one of the busiest streets in the district, and two blocks from the Hunters Point police station.

WILSON TO AMPLIFY 8 HOUR ACT DEFENCE

Will Tell Grain Dealers in Baltimore To-day He Acted From Conviction.

LONG BRANCH, N. J., Sept. 24.—President Wilson will make two or more speeches a week from now on until election day, it is expected. He goes to Baltimore to-morrow to address the National Grain Dealers Association, and in this, as in all other addresses, will dwell upon the eight hour law passed by Congress to avert the railroad strike.

Those who are particularly interested in the subject, since they are shippers, the President will expand and amplify his address of yesterday on that subject. He will refer also to the rural credits law, the Federal reserve act and other legislation of his Administration. He will reply to the charge that the eight hour law was passed by Congress under threat of a strike by the assertion that he insisted upon the law because he believed it right.

Col. E. M. House, who spent the week end at Shadow Lawn, and the President's other political advisers said he will be much more active in the campaign from the time forth.

WILSON IS LOSING THE "SOLID SOUTH"

Publications' Straw Vote Trend Announced by Hughes Alliance.

A STRAW VOTE TAKEN BY MEANS OF COUPONS PUBLISHED IN MONTHLY MAGAZINES AND WEEKLIES SHOWS UNMISTAKABLY THAT THE "SOLID SOUTH" IS BREAKING AWAY FROM WILSON IN PRONOUNCED FASHION, ACCORDING TO AN ANNOUNCEMENT MADE YESTERDAY BY THE HUGHES ALLIANCE.

The President's surrender to the railroad brotherhoods undoubtedly caused the desertion of many men who have voted the Democratic tickets all their lives. It was said, His Mexican policy provided another reason.

One man wrote on his coupon: "I am still a Democrat. I fought through the civil war in the Confederate army, and I have voted for every Democratic President since, including Bryan, but I cannot vote for a craven coward like Wilson, who truckles to a lot of walking delegates."

Officials of the alliance were impressed by the fact that fully one-third of the new enrolments came from the Southern States. The survey from Texas, which has suffered keenly from Mexican raids, was one of the largest in the Union. Tennessee, Kentucky, Arkansas, North Carolina and Virginia were also largely represented. California is first in its number of enrolments.

The alliance expects to reach a membership of 100,000 in New York State. Col. Roosevelt sent yesterday to Chairman Wilcox of the Republican National Committee a letter heartily endorsing the Republican Women's Campaign Committee, which is to make a tour of the United States in behalf of Hughes.

BOY KILLED BY THIRD RAIL.

Electrocuted While Looking for Lost Coins on Bridge.

Talmore Mallman, 10 years old, of 12 South First street, Brooklyn, was electrocuted yesterday while searching for lost coins at the Brooklyn and the Williamsburg Bridge. With another boy, Sidney Miller, 120 South First street, Brooklyn, Mallman had found some money Saturday, and they returned yesterday to renew their quest.

The Mallman boy climbed under a channel rail, and it was here that he was killed. Edward Blanken, doing duty on the car, saw the boy, the head resting on the third rail. Blanken loomed the boy's neck with a stick around the boy's neck and pulled the body off the rail.

RUSSIAN Koustari Art Needlework

We have recently contracted with the Imperial Russian Government through its Department of Agriculture to act as its sole agents in the United States for the sale of all articles of Koustari (Russian peasant) manufacture on Linen, and we now have pleasure in announcing the arrival of a considerable shipment of this work by steamer Mogileff from Archangel.

This work comes from districts as widely separated as Courland, Novgorod and Kiev. Much of it is from the Schools which are under the Royal patronage of the Princess Goltz and Princess Lvov.

All of the goods are made on hand-woven Crash, ranging in weight from a sheer, filmy fabric to the heavy and firm grades familiarly known to art needleworkers as Russia Crash. Much of the work is done in white, but there are many wonderful specimens in color, in which the softness of tone and artistic blending of color are very remarkable.

But not only is the Russian peasant a skillful needleworker and an artist in the blending of color; he is also a designer of no mean ability. The needlework, the color blending, and the designs in these goods are a characteristic expression of Russian Art, which we believe will be a surprise to many people.

Another feature of this work which is not least in importance is its very moderate price. Among the various articles shown are Table Covers and Scarfs of many different sizes, Doilies, Luncheon and Tea Cloths, etc.

These goods are also on Sale at our Magnolia and Newport branch stores.
